Comparisons in Real-Life Conversation

There is a dialog between Mr. Nakamura and Kameoka about Hiroshima souvenirs below. Read it carefully and complete Japanese sentences at the back.

〈Dialog〉 Hiroshima Souvenirs

Kameoka: When I go on the school trip in Hiroshima, I would like to buy Hiroshima souvenirs. There are onomichi ramen, momiji manju, and oysters.

Nakamura: The price of momiji manjyu is 150 yen each. The price of oysters is 200 yen each. The price of onomichi raman is twice as high as that of momiji manju. How much is your budget for the souvenirs?

Kameoka: I would like to spend 10,000 yen for all of them. As I want to eat onomichi ramen and oysters as a set, I would buy two oysters for each ramen.

Nakamura: Who will you give souvenirs to?

Kameoka: I will give momiji manju to my friends so I will buy more momiji manju than the other souvenirs. Also, I will bring some onomichi ramen back to my house and eat them with my family. So I will buy at least five onomichi ramen.
